

124B.9 Sale, transfer, furnishing, or receipt for unlawful purpose — penalty.

1. A person who sells, transfers, or otherwise furnishes a precursor substance with knowledge or the intent that the recipient will use the precursor substance to unlawfully manufacture a controlled substance commits a class “C” felony.

2. A person who receives a precursor substance with the intent that the substance be used unlawfully to manufacture a controlled substance commits a class “C” felony.

90 Acts, ch 1251, §18

C91, §204B.9

C93, §124B.9

2004 Acts, ch 1057, §2

See §124.401